EASTER GREETINGS : ALLELUIA!

Spring is here! The cherry and almond blossom is filling the skyline with colour and energy. The magnolia buds have popped and are abundant. The tomb of Jesus is empty. The women come on the first day of the week. Who rolled the stone away? Where have they put him? He still goes before us. We still have to tell the world he is risen. Is this another layer of what it means to live Simply? To walk by faith and not by sight?

HOLY WEEK CELEBRATIONS

A special thanks to all who supported and prepared the various ceremonies ~ Sue Brown who prepared the Service of Reconciliation; Rosarie & Susanna Baldi who prepared Maundy Thursday; Di & Shaun Reid who coordinated the Easter Vigil; the Children's Liturgy Group who at Leading us at 10am on Easter morning and the Music Group and Readers. Thanks to Sandra Endsor, Sue Lewis, Lavina Hodgkinson and Fran Wickes who have prepared the Church on Oakwood Celebrations. Special thanks to Di Reid and her team who have prepared the flowers.

FIRST READING: Acts 10:34.37-43

Peter addressed Cornelius and his household: 'You must have heard about the recent happenings in Judaea; about Jesus of Nazareth and how he began in Galilee, after John had been preaching baptism. God had anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power, and because God was with him, Jesus went about doing good and curing all who had fallen into the power of the devil. Now I, and those with me, can witness to everything he did throughout the countryside of Judaea and in Jerusalem itself: and also to the fact that they killed him by hanging him on a tree, yet three days afterwards God raised him to life and allowed him to be seen, not by the whole people but only by certain witnesses God had chosen beforehand. Now we are those witnesses - we have eaten and drunk with him after his resurrection from the dead - and he has ordered us to proclaim this to his people and to tell them that God has appointed him to judge everyone, alive or dead. It is to him that all the prophets bear this witness: that all who believe in Jesus will have their sins forgiven through his name.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: This day was made by the Lord; we rejoice and are glad.

SECOND READING: Colossians 3:1-4

Since you have been brought back to true life with Christ, you must look for the things that are in heaven, where Christ is, sitting at God's right hand. Let your thoughts be on heavenly things, not on the things that are on the earth, because you have died, and now the life you have is hidden with Christ in God. But when Christ is revealed - and he is your life - you too will be revealed in all your glory with him.

This is the word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Alleluia, alleluia! Christ, our Passover, has been sacrificed; let us celebrate the feast then, in the Lord, Alleluia!

GOSPEL READING: John 20:1-9

It was very early on the first day of the week and still dark, when Mary of Magdala came to the tomb. She saw that the stone had been moved away from the tomb and came running to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one Jesus loved. 'They have taken the Lord out of the tomb' she said 'and we don't know where they have put him.'

So Peter set out with the other disciple to go to the tomb. They ran together, but the other disciple, running faster than Peter, reached the tomb first; he bent down and saw the linen cloths lying on the ground, but did not go in. Simon Peter who was following now came up, went right into the tomb, saw the linen cloths on the ground, and also the cloth that had been over his head; this was not with the linen cloths but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple who had reached the tomb first also went in; he saw and he believed. Till this moment they had failed to understand the teaching of scripture, that he must rise from the dead.
