SERVICE OF ANOINTING AND HEALING

Will take place this Sunday, July 5th, at St. Albans' at 3pm. Some 45 people have already said they are coming to take part and it is not too late for anyone else who wishes to join them. Some are coming because they are feeling the passing of time, some because they are ill, some because they are having chemotherapy treatment, some because they are seeking peace of mind and family unity.

A great variety of desires! My thanks to the Eucharistic ministers for encouraging and supporting their fellow parishioners and to the Social Committee for organising the Tea in the Parish Centre afterwards.

REV. JOSEPHINE WHITEHEAD

The curate, at the Church on Oakwood, was ordained priest this Saturday in Ashbourne. She is celebrating her First mass this Sunday morning in Oakwood. There is a congratulations card for her in the porch for anyone who wants to sign it!

THE CHURCH ON OAKWOOD ~ PRAYER REQUESTS FOR THOSE IN NEED

The Partnership Group have agreed to share a book in which anyone can write their requests for prayers. This is already being used by the Protestant congregation and will now be a joint venture. The book will be open on the table as you come into the porch, please write details of your request as briefly as you can. The book will then be brought to the altar at the intercessions and we will pray for all those mentioned - from all denominations within the Church on Oakwood.

ENRICH YOUR MARRIAGE

If you are a married couple, here is an opportunity to enrich your relationship away from the stresses of, everyday life.

A Marriage Encounter Weekend is for couples who have happy marriages and gives them time to look at their relationship. It's an enrichment experience. The weekend is spent listening to a series of presentations on various aspects of relationship, including the Catholic Church's Vision for Marriage. After each presentation some time is spent together as a couple, reflecting on what has been heard. Apart from mealtimes and the concluding Mass, the weekend is spent together as a couple. It is a private weekend with no group discussions.

The next Weekend to be held which may be convenient for travel is at the IBIS Hotel, Chesterfield, from Friday evening 18th to Sunday afternoon 20th September.

You can find more information, including dates and venues, on the website which is www.wwme.org.uk, through which you can also arrange a booking, or phone 01538385801.

FIRST READING: Ezekiel 2:2-5

The spirit came into me and made me stand up, and I heard the Lord speaking to me. He said, Son of man, I am sending you to the Israelites, to the rebels who have turned against me. Till now they and their ancestors have been in revolt against me. The sons are defiant and obstinate; I am sending you to them, to say, The Lord says this. Whether they listen or not, this set of rebels shall know there is a prophet among them. This is the word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: our eyes are on the Lord till he shows us his mercy.

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 12:7-10

In view of the extraordinary nature of these revelations, to stop me from getting too proud I was given a thorn in the flesh, an angel of Satan to beat me and stop me from getting too proud! About this thing, I have pleaded with the Lord three times for it to leave me, but he has said, 'My grace is enough for you: my power is at its best in weakness.' So I shall be very happy to make my weaknesses my special boast so that the power of Christ may stay over me, and that is why I am quite content with my weaknesses, and with insults, hardships, persecutions, and the agonies I go through for Christ's sake. For it is when I am weak that I am strong. This is the word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Alleluia, alleluia. The Word was made flesh and lived among us; to all who did accept him he gave power to become children of God. Alleluia

GOSPEL READING: Mark 6:1-6

Jesus went to his home town and his disciples accompanied him. With the coming of the Sabbath he began teaching in the synagogue and most of them were astonished when they heard him. They said, 'Where did the man get all this? What is this wisdom that has been granted him, and these miracles that are worked through him? This is the carpenter, surely, the son of Mary, the brother of James and Joset and Jude and Simon? His sisters, too, are they not here with us?' And they would not accept him. And Jesus said to them, 'A prophet is only despised in his own country, among his own relations and in his own house'; and he could work no miracle there, though he cured a few sick people by laying his hands on them. He was amazed at their lack of faith.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.
