WELCOME TO MATTEO CUOMO

Who we are baptising at 10am mass this Sunday. The occasion picks up the experience we were celebrating last weekend of being the community of people of St. Alban's parish. In welcoming Matteo into the church we are celebrating the way we each come to God ~ through each other! Congratulations to Carlo, Clare, Joseph, Olivia and Luca!

SERVICE OF ANOINTING

Next Sunday, July 5th, at 3pm; followed by tea in the Hall. So far 26 people have returned forms to say they are planning to take part. Are there any more? If possible, please let me know this weekend, so we know how many to cater for, for the tea!

ST. ALBAN'S CELEBRATIONS

Our thanks to Susanna Aitchinson for making the banner and to Mark Booton for lending us the statue of St. Alban from school. Thanks to those who prepared the Liturgy last weekend, especially the Children's Liturgy Group. Thanks to the Social Committee who ran last Saturday evening and to those parents who ran the games, refreshment and bouncy castle after 10am mass.

See our own website for pictures of the Parish Pilgrimage to St. Alban's Cathedral in July 2005.

RED BOXES

5 people have returned them so far. This is the last weekend; I will count the money and send it away this week.

THE CHURCH ON OAKWOOD ~ PRAYER REQUESTS FOR THOSE IN NEED

The Partnership Group have agreed to share a book in which anyone can write their requests for prayers. This is already being used by the Protestant congregation and will now be a joint venture. The book will be open on the table as you come into the porch, please write details of your request as briefly as you can. The book will then be brought to the altar at the intercessions and we will pray for all those mentioned - from all denominations within the Church on Oakwood.

REV. JOSEPHINE WHITEHEAD

The curate, at the Church on Oakwood, is being ordained priest next Saturday in Ashbourne at 4pm. She invites us to join her for that very special occasion and/or her First mass the next morning, Sunday July 5th, at the Church on Oakwood at 10.30am.

FIRST READING Acts 12:1-11

King Herod started persecuting certain members of the Church. He beheaded James the brother of John, and when he saw that this pleased the Jews he decided to arrest Peter as well. This was during the days of Unleavened Bread, and he put Peter in prison, assigning four squads of four soldiers each to guard him in turns. Herod meant to try Peter in public after the end of Passover week. All the time Peter was under guard the Church prayed to God for him unremittingly. On the night before Herod was to try him, Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, fastened with double chains, while guards kept watch at the main entrance to the prison. Then suddenly the angel of the Lord stood there, and the cell was filled with light. He tapped Peter on the side and woke him. Get up! he said Hurry! - and the chains fell from his hands. The angel then said, Put on your belt and sandals. After he had done this, the angel next said, Wrap your cloak round you and follow me. Peter followed him, but had no idea that what the angel did was all happening in reality; he thought he was seeing a vision. They passed through two guard posts one after the other, and reached the iron gate leading to the city. This opened of its own accord; they went through it and had walked the whole length of one street when suddenly the angel left him. It was only then that Peter came to himself. Now I know it is all true, he said. The Lord really did send his angel and has saved me from Herod and from all that the Jewish people were so certain would happen to me. This is the word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: The angel of the Lord rescues those who revere him.

Second Reading: 2 Timothy 4:6-8.17-18

My life is already being poured away as a libation, and the time has come for me to be gone. I have fought the good fight to the end; I have run the race to the finish; I have kept the faith; all there is to come now is the crown of righteousness reserved for me, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give to me on that Day; and not only to me but to all those who have longed for his Appearing. The Lord stood by me and gave me power, so that through me the whole message might be proclaimed for all the pagans to hear; and so I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from all evil attempts on me, and bring me safely to his heavenly kingdom. To him be glory for ever and ever. Amen. This is the word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Alleluia, alleluia. Blessed be God, a gentle Father, and the God of all consolation, who comforts us in all our sorrows. Alleluia

GOSPEL READING: Matthew 16:13-19

When Jesus came to the region of Caesarea Philippi he put this question to his disciples, 'Who do people say the Son of Man is?' And they said, 'Some say he is John the Baptist, some Elijah, and others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.' 'But you,' he said 'who do you say I am?' Then Simon Peter spoke up, 'You are the Christ,' he said 'the Son of the living God.' Jesus replied, 'Simon son of Jonah, you are a happy man! Because it was not flesh and blood that revealed this to you but my Father in heaven. So I now say to you: You are Peter and on this rock I will build my Church. And the gates of the underworld can never hold out against it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven: whatever you bind on earth shall be considered bound in heaven; whatever you loose on earth shall be considered loosed in heaven.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord.
