THE YEAR OF THE PRIEST

Was formally inaugurated by Pope Benedict in June. Bishop Malcolm writes "I think, first of all, with heartfelt gratitude on the immense gift which priests represent, not only for the Church, but also for humanity itself. I think of all our priests in the Diocese of Nottingham who quietly present Christ's words and actions each day to you and to the whole world, striving to be one with the Lord in their thoughts and their will, their sentiments and their style of life. I often say how proud I am of our priests who even amid difficulties remain faithful to their vocation as "friends of Christ", whom he has called by name, chosen and sent? It is very easy for us to concentrate on the difficulties that are affecting the priesthood and not see priesthood for what it is. This pastoral letter gives me the opportunity to thank you for the many practical ways in which you support your priests. I am not referring to the way in which you participate in your parish life, which is your responsibility because of your baptismal vocation. No, what I mean are the many ways in which you show them kindness, offer them friendship and give them respect. I know how much these things matter greatly to them.

Please include the prayer for priests, which is on the prayer card that will be given out today, in your daily prayers.

FIRST READING Jeremiah 31:7-9

The Lord says this: Shout with joy for Jacob! Hail the chief of nations! Proclaim! Praise! Shout: The Lord has saved his people, the remnant of Israel! See, I will bring them back from the land of the North and gather them from the far ends of earth; all of them: the blind and the lame, women with child, women in labour: a great company returning here. They had left in tears, I will comfort them as I lead them back; I will guide them to streams of water, by a smooth path where they will not stumble. For I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my first-born son.

This is the word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: What marvels the Lord worked for us! Indeed we were glad.

Second Reading: Hebrews 5:1-6

Every high priest has been taken out of mankind and is appointed to act for men in their relations with God, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins; and so he can sympathise with those who are ignorant or uncertain because he too lives in the limitations of weakness. That is why he has to make sin offerings for himself as well as for the people. No one takes this honour on himself, but each one is called by God, as Aaron was. Nor did Christ give himself the glory of becoming high priest, but he had it from the one who said to him: You are my son, today I have become your father, and in another text: You are a priest of the order of Melchizedek, and forever.

This is the word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Alleluia, alleluia! I am the light of the world, says the Lord, anyone who follows me will have the light of life. Alleluia!

GOSPEL READING: Mark 10:46-52

As Jesus left Jericho with his disciples and a large crowd, Bartimaeus (that is, the son of Timaeus), a blind beggar, was sitting at the side of the road. When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout and to say, 'Son of David, Jesus, have pity on me.' And many of them scolded him and told him to keep quiet, but he only shouted all the louder, 'Son of David, have pity on me.' Jesus stopped and said, 'Call him here.' So they called the blind man. 'Courage,' they said, 'get up; he is calling you.' So throwing off his cloak, he jumped up and went to Jesus. Then Jesus spoke, 'What do you want me to do for you?' 'Rabbuni,' the blind man said to him, 'Master, let me see again.' Jesus said to him, 'Go; your faith has saved you.' And immediately his sight returned and he followed him along the road.
