Advent Wreath Prayer

Reader: Last week we lit the first candle on our Advent Wreath – the Candle of Hope, which reminded us of our hope in Christ. Today we light the second purple candle – the Candle of Peace – to remind us that Jesus is the Prince of Peace who taught us the importance of being peacemakers and in whom true peace is found.

The two candles are lit

Reader: Peace is like a light shining in a dark place. As we look at this candle we celebrate the peace we find in Jesus.

Response: Lord, you bring light to dark places.

Help us, on our journey, to take your light with us.

Reader: We remember John the Baptist, a witness to the truth. May we burn with the same passion to bring an end to injustice. Response

Reader: We watch with those who wait and weep, longing to see the rule of justice and the reign of peace, a world where the hungry are filled and the lowly exalted. R/

The First Reading: Isaiah 11:1-10

A shoot springs from the stock of Jesse, a scion thrusts from his roots: on him the spirit of the Lord rests, a spirit of wisdom and insight, a spirit of counsel and power, a spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the Lord. (The fear of the Lord is his breath.) He does not judge by appearances, he gives no verdict on hearsay, but judges the wretched with integrity, and with equity gives a verdict for the poor of the land. His word is a rod that strikes the ruthless, his sentences bring death to the wicked. Integrity is the loincloth round his waist, faithfulness the belt about his hips. The wolf lives with the lamb, the panther lies down with the kid, calf and lion cub feed together with a little boy to lead them. The cow and the bear make friends, their young lie down together. The lion eats straw like the ox. The infant plays over the cobras hole; into the vipers lair the young child puts his hand. They do no hurt, no harm, on all my holy mountain, for the country is filled with the knowledge of the Lord as the waters well the sea. That day, the root of Jesse shall stand as a signal to the peoples. It will be sought out by the nations and its home will be glorious. This is the word of the Lord.

Response to Psalm: In his days justice shall flourish and peace till the moon fails.

Second Reading: Romans 15:4-9

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Prepare the way for the Lord, make his paths straight. And all mankind shall see the salvation of God. Alleluia!

Gospel Reading: Matthew 3:1-12

In due course John the Baptist appeared; he preached in the wilderness of Judaea and this was his message: 'Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is close at hand'. This was the man the prophet Isaiah spoke of when he said: A voice cries in the wilderness: Prepare a way for the Lord, make his paths straight. This man John wore a garment made of camel-hair with a leather belt round his waist, and his food was locusts and wild honey. Then Jerusalem and all Judaea and the whole Jordan district made their way to him, and as they were baptised by him in the river Jordan they confessed their sins. But when he saw a number of Pharisees and Sadducees coming for baptism he said to them, 'Brood of vipers, who warned you to fly from the retribution that is coming? But if you are repentant, produce the appropriate fruit, and do not presume to tell yourselves, "We have Abraham for our father," because, I tell you, God can raise children for Abraham from these stones. Even now the axe is laid to the roots of the trees, so that any tree which fails to produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown on the fire. I baptise you in water for repentance, but the one who follows me is more powerful than I am, and I am not fit to carry his sandals; he will baptise you with the Holy Spirit and fire. His winnowing-fan is in his hand; he will clear his threshing-floor and gather his wheat into the barn; but the chaff he will burn in a fire that will never go out.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord.
