CHURCH CLEANING

Thank you to our five teams of church cleaners. Sadly they have just become four because of Bill Stones' recent death. We thank them all and especially Marie for their good work. There's a new rota available.

CAFOD FREE WILL WRITING OFFER

What did you make of Marie Molloy's talk last weekend? Did it ring any bells for you or touch on anything which attracted you? It had my name written all over it!

For 10 years now I have been putting off making a will! All clergy get Bishop's reminders of it every year and I have still managed to ignore it, I have kept putting it off because I was a bit afraid, a bit unprepared to face up to my own mortality. My father's death a year ago freed me a bit more to take more responsibility and a friend's recent sudden death has pushed me on again. So, I have sent off the "Next Step" return reply from the Cafod Information Sheet. So long as you do so by Friday, February 12th the will is free! See www.cafod.org.uk/legacy

CHURCH ON OAKWOOD UNDER FIVES

There are currently two groups running at The Church on Oakwood to cater for the under 5's and their carers:-

"Tots and Teddies" where the adults can meet for a chat while the children have some fun (1st Thursday in the month, 1.30 - 3pm)

"Pray and Play" where there is the opportunity to share in Story time, Prayers, Crafts, Songs and Games, (3rd Thursday in the month, 1.45- 2.45pm)

Both these groups are organized by Elizabeth Embly, who is hoping to pass the reins to a younger person in the near future and feels that this could be something that is part of our ecumenical partnership. So, if you are interested in helping with these groups I am sure Elizabeth would be delighted. (It doesn't matter whether you attend St. Alban's or Oakwood.) You can contact her on 01332 664080, mobile 07801066518 or email e.embley@btinternet.com

First Reading: Isaiah 6:1-8

In the year of King Uzziah's death I saw the Lord seated on a high throne; his train filled the sanctuary; above him stood seraphs, each one with six wings. And they cried out one to another in this way, Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts. His glory fills the whole earth. The foundations of the threshold shook with the voice of the one who cried out, and the Temple was filled with smoke. I said: What a wretched state I am in! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips and I live among a people of unclean lips, and my eyes have looked at the King, the Lord of hosts. Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding in his hand a live coal which he had taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. With this he touched my mouth and said: See now, this has touched your lips, your sin is taken away, your iniquity is purged. Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying: Whom shall I send? Who will be our messenger? I answered, Here I am, send me. This is the word of the Lord.

Response to Psalm: Before the angels I will bless you, O Lord.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 15:1-11

Brothers, I want to remind you of the gospel I preached to you, the gospel that you received and in which you are firmly established; because the gospel will save you only if you keep believing exactly what I preached to you - believing anything else will not lead to anything. Well then, in the first place, I taught you what I had been taught myself, namely that Christ died for our sins, in accordance with the scriptures; that he was buried; and that he was raised to life on the third day, in accordance with the scriptures; that he appeared first to Cephas and secondly to the Twelve. Next he appeared to more than five hundred of the brothers at the same time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died; then he appeared to James, and then to all the apostles; and last of all he appeared to me too; it was as though I was born when no one expected it. I am the least of the apostles; in fact, since I persecuted the Church of God, I hardly deserve the name apostle; but by God's grace that is what I am, and the grace that he gave me has not been fruitless. On the contrary, I, or rather the grace of God that is with me, have worked harder than any of the others; but what matters is that I preach what they preach, and this is what you all believed. This is the word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! I call you friends, says the Lord, because I have made known to you everything I have learnt from my Father. Alleluia!

Gospel Reading: Luke 5:1-11

Jesus was standing one day by the Lake of Gennesaret, with the crowd pressing round him listening to the word of God, when he caught sight of two boats close to the bank. The fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. He got into one of the boats - it was Simon's - and asked him to put out a little from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. When he had finished speaking he said to Simon, 'Put out into deep water and pay out your nets for a catch.' 'Master,' Simon replied, 'we worked hard all night long and caught nothing, but if you say so, I will pay out the nets.' And when they had done this they netted such a huge number of fish that their nets began to tear, so they signalled to their companions in the other boats to come and help them; when these came, they filled the two boats to sinking point.

When Simon Peter saw this he fell at the knees of Jesus saying, 'Leave me, Lord; I am a sinful man.' For he and all his companions were completely overcome by the catch they had made; so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were Simon's partners. But Jesus said to Simon, 'Do not be afraid; from now on it is men you will catch.' Then, bringing their boats back to land, they left everything and followed him.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.
