~~~~~
Please pray for: Peter Yale & Rachel Brennan whose funerals took place last week and Michael Murphy whose funeral takes place this coming Thursday, remembering also their families and all who mourn for them.

Financial Statement: Members of the parish finance committee will deliver the Statement of Income and Expenditure for April'09 – March'10 at all Masses this weekend. Despite the economic downturn we have maintained a healthy balance sheet and thanks to our regular Hall Letting managed to reduce our debt to the diocese considerably over the past year. Thanks to everyone for your continuing generosity.

CHURCH REPAIRS: The statue of St Alban on the front of the church has been cleaned recently and the mosaic surround has been repaired. The vandalised lightening conductors have also been repaired. The guttering on the Parish Centre and Bungalow, which have been problematic since they were installed, have also been sorted out over the last couple of weeks and should not give us any further problems. Unfortunately we have also been the victims of further vandalism over the last week and several panes of glass have been smashed on the south side of the Church. Work on repairing these is in hand. .

Cafod Fast Day Collection: thanks to everyone who contributed in any way to our efforts on behalf of the Cafod Fast Day appeal. A cheque for £943 has been sent to Cafod plus a further £35 from the Sale of Toys. Hopefully our efforts will help to make a better life for people like Jeanne in Rwanda. Next weekend members of the Cafod group will be telling us about some of the people in Brazil who we can also support through the Connect 2 project.

St Alban's Primary School are collecting Morrisons 'Let's Grow' vouchers. If you have any to donate please pass them to any member of the school or leave in the basket in the Church Porch. Thank you.

Altar Servers Training continues in Church for the next two Saturdays from 9.30 – 11.00 a.m. Contact Simon on 678837 or Cheryl on 679642. for further details or just turn up.

The First Reading: Exodus 17:8-13

The Amalekites came and attacked Israel at Rephidim. Moses said to Joshua, Pick out men for yourself, and tomorrow morning march out to engage Amalek. I, meanwhile, will stand on the hilltop, the staff of God in my hand. Joshua did as Moses told him and marched out to engage Amalek, while Moses and Aaron and Hur went up to the top of the hill. As long as Moses kept his arms raised, Israel had the advantage; when he let his arms fall, the advantage went to Amalek. But Moses arms grew heavy, so they took a stone and put it under him and on this he sat, Aaron and Hur supporting his arms, one on one side, one on the other; and his arms remained firm till sunset. With the edge of the sword Joshua cut down Amalek and his people.

Response to Psalm: Our help is in the name of the Lord who made heaven and earth.

Second Reading: 2 Timothy 3:14 - 4:2

You must keep to what you have been taught and know to be true; remember who your teachers were, and how, ever since you were a child, you have known the holy scriptures - from these you can learn the wisdom that leads to salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All scripture is inspired by God and can profitably be used for teaching, for refuting error, for guiding people's lives and teaching them to be holy. This is how the man who is dedicated to God becomes fully equipped and ready for any good work. Before God and before Christ Jesus who is to be judge of the living and the dead, I put this duty to you, in the name of his Appearing and of his kingdom: proclaim the message and, welcome or unwelcome, insist on it. Refute falsehood, correct error, call to obedience - but do all with patience and with the intention of teaching.

This is the word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our mind, so that we can see what hope his call holds for us. Alleluia!

Gospel Reading: Luke 18:1-8

Jesus told his disciples a parable about the need to pray continually and never lose heart. 'There was a judge in a certain town' he said 'who had neither fear of God nor respect for man. In the same town there was a widow who kept on coming to him and saying, "I want justice from you against my enemy!" For a long time he refused, but at last he said to himself, "Maybe I have neither fear of God nor respect for man, but since she keeps pestering me I must give this widow her just rights, or she will persist in coming and worry me to death." ' And the Lord said, 'You notice what the unjust judge has to say? Now will not God see justice done to his chosen who cry to him day and night even when he delays to help them? I promise you, he will see justice done to them, and done speedily. But when the Son of Man comes, will he find any faith on earth?'
