From Fr Paul: 'A very sincere thank you to you all for the warm, friendly welcome you gave me last weekend. Already I'm beginning to feel settled and a part of the life of the parish. It was great to meet you at the end of mass and gradually I'll get to know names and faces and hopefully link them together. Having said that I'll be away for the next 2 weekends (a pre-planned vacation) but I'll be back and raring to go after my few days in the sun. Mgr Forde will be celebrating the weekend masses while I'm away. I know you'll make him feel welcome! '

As we announced last weekend, we will be inviting Fr Gerry back to the parish in the near future for a Social Evening and Presentation. It will most likely be a Friday night in March but we'll confirm that next weekend! So start practising your party pieces and return your Special Collection Envelopes to the basket on the table in the porch or hand to one of the collectors. If you've been away for the last couple of weeks there are still envelopes available. Please return them as soon as possible

Response to the Psalm: They are happy who follow God's law!

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia!. Speak Lord your servant is listening;
you have the message of eternal life. Alleluia!

Gospel Reading Matthew 5:17-37

Jesus said to his disciples: 'Do not imagine that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets. I have come not to abolish them but to complete them. I tell you solemnly, till heaven and earth disappear, not one dot, one little stroke, shall disappear from the Law until its purpose is achieved. Therefore, the man who infringes even one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be considered the least in the kingdom of heaven; but the man who keeps them and teaches them will be considered great in the kingdom of heaven.

'For I tell you, if your virtue goes no deeper than that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never get into the kingdom of heaven. 'You have learnt how it was said to our ancestors: You must not kill; and if anyone does kill he must answer for it before the court. But I say this to you: anyone who is angry with his brother will answer for it before the court; if a man calls his brother "Fool" he will answer for it before the Sanhedrin; and if a man calls him "Renegade" he will answer for it in hell fire. So then, if you are bringing your offering to the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your offering there before the altar, go and be reconciled with your brother first, and then come back and present your offering. Come to terms with your opponent in good time while you are still on the way to the court with him, or he may hand you over to the judge and the judge to the officer, and you will be thrown into prison. I tell you solemnly, you will not get out till you have paid the last penny.

'You have learnt how it was said: You must not commit adultery. But I say this to you: if a man looks at a woman lustfully, he has already committed adultery with her in his heart. If your right eye should cause you to sin, tear it out and throw it away; for it will do you less harm to lose one part of you than to have your whole body thrown into hell. And if your right hand should cause you to sin, cut it off and throw it away; for it will do you less harm to lose one part of you than to have your whole body go to hell. 'It has also been said: Anyone who divorces his wife must give her a writ of dismissal. But I say this to you: everyone who divorces his wife, except for the case of fornication, makes her an adulteress; and anyone who marries a divorced woman commits adultery.

'Again, you have learnt how it was said to our ancestors: You must not break your oath, but must fulfil your oaths to the Lord. But I say this to you: do not swear at all, either by heaven, since that is God's throne; or by the earth, since that is his footstool; or by Jerusalem, since that is the city of the great king. Do not swear by your own head either, since you cannot turn a single hair white or black. All you need say is "Yes" if you mean yes, "No" if you mean no; anything more than this comes from the evil one.'
