The Quiet Garden Movement

Last year St Joseph's parish joined the Quiet Garden Movement which began in the Anglican Church around 25 years ago. It is a rich tradition of contemplative prayer within the Catholic Church going back many centuries. Their next retreat will be on Saturday, 19th May, 10am-12noon: and the theme will be "Gifts of the Holy Spirit". Any queries to Fr John Trenchard or Kathleen Elliott Phone: 01332 343777 "Come with me by yourself to a quiet place and get some rest." Jesus Christ.

Isabel Sdao RIP

Lucia Sdao writes ... "I am writing with the sad news of my sister's passing. I am sure that many people will remember the Sdao family from Chesapeake Road (Angela, Conrad and Lucia) and also the Lavery family from Max Road (Francis, Mona, Denis, Charlie, Una and Anton). Isabel married Stephen Lavery in 1983 and had a son Auben in 1985 and daughter Minerva in 1986. They have lived in Scotland all their married life and most recently in Pitlochry. After a long illness Isabel passed away at home surrounded by her loving family at the tender age of 58. I would be really grateful for prayers to be offered up for my lovely sister please. Both Stephen and Isabel attended St Albans Primary School and Church together with parents Flora and Corrado Sdao and Francis and Denis Lavery. Very many thanks."
