An information event will be held at QUAD in the Market Place on Friday May 18th between 10.30am and 2.30pm as part of Dying Matters awareness week (w/c May 14) which this year asks the question – "What Can You Do". These will include Derby Dandelions bereavement support group, Timms Solicitors, Age UK, Richmond Village, the Alzheimer's Society, Making Space, Macmillan professionals and the Royal British Legion.

The Quiet Garden Movement

Last year St Joseph's parish joined the Quiet Garden Movement which began in the Anglican Church around 25 years ago. It is a rich tradition of contemplative prayer within the Catholic Church going back many centuries. St Joseph's has the facilities of both a beautiful garden and church which act as both a context and a focus in which to share silence. Their next retreat will be on Saturday, 19th May, 10am-12noon: and the theme will be "Gifts of the Holy Spirit". Any queries to Fr John Trenchard or Kathleen Elliott Phone: 01332 343777 "Come with me by yourself to a quiet place and get some rest." Jesus Christ.
