Please keep them in your prayers.

There remains no obligation to attend Mass or Confession but, if you feel able, you are most welcome to join us – safe distancing & the wearing of masks remains in place + live streaming.

A Cautious Easing of Restrictions

Following the Governments latest announcements of the easing of restrictions but aware of rising numbers of Covid cases you'll notice a few key changes after this weekend:

1. The Booking for Mass ends after this weekend.
2. Continue hand sanitizing on entry, exit & ministry.
3. We 'strongly recommend' the wearing of masks.
4. Stewards only need to write down details for those folks who can't use the QR Code whilst the Governments Track & Trace is still in place.
5. If Mass goers would like a space kept free next to them, they'll receive a card from a Steward as they arrive to put on the seat beside them.
6. Congregational singing is permitted for those wearing a mask.
7. The one-way systems go but we're keeping the Holy Communion distance markers at the front.
8. Those receiving Holy Communion on the tongue should go to the priest at the end.
9. Stewards keep hold of the offertory baskets.
10. We continue the sign language of peace.
11. Good ventilation continues.
12. Social activities generally will remain on pause until after the summer.

Donations for Fr Peter in Malawi

You may be aware that Malawi has been especially badly hit by the pandemic and a delay in people having access to the vaccine. To compound matters for Fr Peter, his car has given up the ghost. In a huge parish this is a key part of Fr Peter's ministry so whatever donations you're able to offer would be very much appreciated to get him back on the road. Cheques can be made out to 'St Hugh's RCP' or direct transfers to St Hugh's (see overleaf) but reference your donation 'Fr Peter' by Sun 15th August after which time we will make a single transfer to support Fr Peter.

Thank You School Staff

On behalf of our parish, I'd like to say a huge thank you to Mrs Johnson at St Alban's, Mr Gritton at St Benedict's and Mr Brogan at St John Houghton Schools and all their terrific staff who have done an amazing job in this hugely challenging academic year. You are all marvels in what you have done and in what you have inspired and may you all enjoy a fun packed and restful summer holiday.

Fr Dave

Children's Liturgy Volunteers Needed

Any people interested in being a 10.30am Mass children's liturgy leader in September please speak to Louise Franik after Mass or email her at louisebooton@hotmail.com

Summer Gardening Volunteers

Over the course of the summer, although we're not meeting on a Wednesday, we could do with folks to volunteer a couple of hours, in your own time & whenever you're free to water & weed St Hugh's Orchard & Sensory Garden to keep it ticking over. Also, we need people to take apart the old fence panels and apply preserver before we recycle these as path edging. Contact Fr David at david_cain@me.com if you'd be happy to help.
