Fr David's leaving collection and party

As you all know Fr David's last masses in our Parishes will be on weekend of 3rd/4th September. There are envelopes available on the 6th & 7th August so that we can donate to his leaving gift. After this date please just speak to a steward or Kay-Lee in the office. There will be a celebration at St Alban's after the 10.30 mass on the 4th September and everyone is welcome. (A similar event will also be arranged at St Hugh's date and time TBC) Please bring along food for a sharing table. We will also have Prosecco and a Bouncy Castle to make his last weekend with us a memorable occasion. Thanks St Alban's PPC

Fr David Moving

I'll be really sad to leave Derby but this is part of the mission of a priest to move where the pastoral need arises and so I'm becoming the new Parish Priest of Sacred Heart & Our Lady's that is part of a new cluster of parishes with St Joseph's in East Leicester. I'll be hoping to share my experience of our communities merging together which begins where we did 5 years ago. Please do keep me & Fr Roji in your prayers.
 Fr David

Oberammergau

For those booked to go on the Oberammergau Pilgrimage (7th to 12th Sept) we're having a meeting to chat about the preparations on Thurs 25th August 7pm at St Alban's.

Welcome to Fr Roji

On the weekend of the 10th & 11th September Fr Roji Kuttivayalil MSFS (Missionary of St Francis de Sales) will become the new Parish Priest of St Alban's, St Hugh's & The Church on Oakwood. Fr Roji, whose Baptism name is Joseph, was born in Kerala in India and is 50 years old. He has been a priest for 17 years and was formerly Parish Priest in Princes Risborough and Assistant Priest in Bletchley in the Northampton Diocese before returning to India to teach trainee priests. Fr Roji comes to us from Holy Trinity Parish in Newark where he was Assistant Priest. He has a PhD in Media Studies and loves reading, gardening & travelling. I met with him last week & I'm sure you'll absolutely love him!
