Scarecrow Festival

Thursday 2nd & Friday 3rd June

To mark the Queen's 2022 Platinum Jubilee, Ockbrook & Borrowwash Villages are hosting a Scarecrow Festival. St Hugh's is on the Scarecrow Route where people will park and view our Scarecrow in the newly growing Parish Orchard (with a royal theme... I had a thought about a large Corgi Scarecrow but other ideas are welcome) and host refreshments in the Hall. We need volunteers from all three of our communities for this great event so do let us know or speak to Karen & Simon who are our Reps on the village's organising group. Also, if you'd like to create a Scarecrow in your own front garden with a voluntary donation (if you live in the area) phone Kathy 07967159543 by the 10th April.

Help for Our Friend Fr Peter

Mass Intentions

Reflecting on previous practice & due to an overwhelming number of requests, please be aware that moving forward there maybe more than one Mass Intention for a particular Mass. This means you'll usually get the date you have requested. If you have booked a weekday Mass this may change due to funerals but we'll let you know if you give us your number.

Please pray for the Confirmation Candidates, Catechists & Fr David who are away at The Briars for the Confirmation Retreat this weekend.
