 You're all most welcome!

Fr David Moving

I'll be really sad to leave Derby but this is part of the mission of a priest to move where the pastoral need arises and so I'm becoming the new Parish Priest of Sacred Heart & Our Lady's that is part of a new cluster of parishes with St Joseph's in East Leicester. I'll be hoping to share my experience of our communities merging together which begins where we did 5 years ago. Please do keep me & Fr Roji in your prayers.

Fr David

Welcome to Fr Roji

On the weekend of the 10th & 11th September Fr Roji Kuttivayalil MSFS (Missionary of St Francis de Sales) will become the new Parish Priest of St Alban's, St Hugh's & The Church on Oakwood. Fr Roji, whose Baptism name is Joseph, was born in Kerala in India and is 50 years old. He has been a priest for 17 years and was formerly Parish Priest in Princes Risborough and Assistant Priest in Bletchley in the Northampton Diocese before returning to India to teach trainee priests. Fr Roji comes to us from Holy Trinity Parish in Newark where he was Assistant Priest. He has a PhD in Media Studies and loves reading, gardening & travelling. I met with him last week & I'm sure you'll absolutely love him!
