Our Journey through Lent to Easter 2020

St Alban's, St Hugh's & The Church on Oakwood

Our Lenten road to Easter...

Lenten Retreat

...a quiet time of prayerful scripture reflection from 10am till 3pm on Saturday 14th March @ St Alban's

Stations of the Cross

... journey with Christ to the Cross on Friday Early Evenings in Lent followed by soup & a roll alternating between St Hugh's & St Alban's – see Newsletter.

Grow in your Faith

...challenge yourself in your journey of faith:
Tuesdays of Lent: York Course 7.30pm @ Oakwood
Wednesdays of March: Easter Gospel of St John 11am @ St Stephen's (Station Road, Borrowash)
Thursdays of Lent: Exploring the Gospels of Lent 7:00pm @ English Martyrs in Alvaston

Exposition & Confessions

...a prayerful moment to love God for being God & receive his forgiveness at St Alban's & St Hugh's throughout Lent – see the Newsletter for the days & times each week.

Deanery Station Masses

Friday Evenings in Lent starting with Stations of the Cross, Confessions & Mass. See the Newsletter for the time & venue each week.

Lenten House Masses

...gather with your neighbouring members of the body of Christ @ 7:00pm on the Wednesdays in Lent - check the Newsletter for your nearest one.

Giving up to Give More

...a Lenten Fast is about joining Jesus in the Desert (Mat 4:1-11) for 40 days & 40 nights beginning at midnight on Ash Wednesday and ending on Holy Saturday. It's about giving something up so that you can give more to others. Sundays are not a day to give up as this is the Day of the Lord's Resurrection (Mark 2:19-20). Lent is 46 days in total minus 6 Sundays = 40 Days!

Ash Wednesday is the Start of Lent - 26th February: St Alban's School @ 9.30am, St Hugh's @ 11am & St Alban's @ 7pm
