CELEBRATING ST. ALBAN'S DAY ~ NEXT WEEKEND

We will be telling the story of St. Alban at each of our three weekend masses and reflecting on what we each receive and give to the parish community. There is a SOCIAL EVENING on the Saturday evening 7.30pm on; with food (shared buffet table), music, a bar and some live songs! Please feel welcome to come along and bring a favourite dish of food, savoury or sweet for the shared buffet table. Please bring it plated and ready for serving; thank you.

Sign the Notice, if possible, this weekend. On Sunday, the Children's Liturgy Group are going to enact a drama of St. Alban's Life and there will be special eats, drinks and games after mass.

SERVICE OF ANOINTING

Will take place on Sunday, July 5th, here, at 3pm followed by tea in the Parish Centre. I would especially like to invite those who are elderly or housebound or having test or treatment at this time. Could I ask our Eucharistic ministers to take one of the invitations provided to those to whom they minister and all parishioners to invite anyone you know who might be interested. It's a prayerful, moving and encouraging celebration I commend to everyone.

FR. JOHN MACK

Parish priest of St. Hugh's, Borrowash, was buried last week. We had two very touching and very different celebrations ~ one at Borrowash on Monday evening was intimate, homely and very personal; ~ the other at St. Mary's was stately, dignified and very warm. Both celebrations were more than full and I know that St. Albans were well represented.

Fr. Mack was parish priest in Borrowash for 27 years! We gave thanks for his long and fruitful ministry there, and prayed for his parishioners, as they mourn him now. It is a strange time for them ~ they have a variety of clergy celebrating mass with them over the next 6 weeks and are then hoping to welcome a new parish priest.

Oakwood

Tea, coffee and Traidcraft have been moved to next week to help celebrate St Alban's day, please join us if you can.

In 1966, Fr Derl was appointed to St Hugh's Minor Seminary, Tollerton and stayed there until 1971, when he was appointed for one year to St Peter's, Leicester. In 1972 he went as Parish Priest to St Margaret's, Gamesley where he spent five years until his appointment to St Anne's, Radcliffe-on-Trent in 1977. FIRST READING: Exodus 24:3-8

Moses went and told the people all the commands of the Lord and all the ordinances. In answer, all the people said with one voice, We will observe all the commands that the Lord has decreed. Moses put all the commands of the Lord into writing, and early next morning he built an altar at the foot of the mountain, with twelve standing-stones for the twelve tribes of Israel. Then he directed certain young Israelites to offer holocausts and to immolate bullocks to the Lord as communion sacrifices. Half of the blood Moses took up and put into basins, the other half he cast on the altar. And taking the Book of the Covenant he read it to the listening people, and they said, we will observe all that the Lord has decreed; we will obey. Then Moses took the blood and cast it towards the people. This he said is the blood of the Covenant that the Lord has made with you, containing all these rules.

This is the word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: The cup of salvation I will raise; I will call on the Lord's name.

SECOND READING: Hebrews 9:11-15

Now Christ has come, as the high priest of all the blessings which were to come. He has passed through the greater, the more perfect tent, which is better than one made by men's hands because it is not of this created order; and he has entered the sanctuary once and for all, taking with him not the blood of goats and bull calves, but his own blood, having won an eternal redemption for us. The blood of goats and bulls and the ashes of a heifer are sprinkled on those who have incurred defilement and they restore the holiness of their outward lives; how much more effectively the blood of Christ, who offered himself as the perfect sacrifice to God through the eternal Spirit, can purify our inner self from dead actions so that we do our service to the living God. He brings a new covenant, as the mediator, only so that the people who were called to an eternal inheritance may actually receive what was promised: his death took place to cancel the sins that infringed the earlier covenant.

This is the word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Alleluia, alleluia! I am the living bread which has come down from heaven, says the Lord. Anyone who eats this bread will live forever. Alleluia!

GOSPEL READING: Mark 14:12-16.22-26

On the first day of Unleavened Bread, when the Passover lamb was sacrificed, his disciples said to Jesus, 'Where do you want us to go and make the preparations for you to eat the Passover?' So he sent two of his disciples, saying to them, 'Go into the city and you will meet a man carrying a pitcher of water. Follow him, and say to the owner of the house which he enters, "The Master says: Where is my dining room in which I can eat the Passover with my disciples?" He will show you a large upper room furnished with couches, all prepared. Make the preparations for us there.' The disciples set out and went to the city and found everything as he had told them, and prepared the Passover. And as they were eating he took some bread, and when he had said the blessing he broke it and gave it to them. 'Take it,' he said 'this is my body.' Then he took a cup, and when he had returned thanks he gave it to them, and all drank from it, and he said to them, 'This is my blood, the blood of the covenant, which is to be poured out for many. I tell you solemnly, I shall not drink any more wine until the day I drink the new wine in the kingdom of God.' After psalms had been sung they left for the Mount of Olives.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.
