CELEBRATING THE HARVEST OF 2009

This weekend. Many thanks to all those who have donated goods, of whatever sort. Please take a moment to carefully look at the displays and give thanks not only for the fruitfulness and variety of the gifts, but also the HUMAN HANDS which have tended them, shaped them, and produced them. This is what we do at each mass ~ at the blessing of the gifts we pray "Blessed are you Lord God of all creation. Through your goodness we have this bread and wine to offer, which earth has given and human hands have made. They will become for us our food and drink”.

Thanks to Susanna Aitchinson and her team for mounting the display. Everything will be sold after 10am mass and the proceeds given to cafod.

FIRST READING: Genesis 2:18-24

The Lord God said, It is not good that the man should be alone. I will make him a helpmate. So from the soil the Lord God fashioned all the wild beasts and all the birds of heaven. These he brought to the man to see what he would call them, each one was to bear the name the man would give it. The man gave names to all the cattle, all the birds of heaven and all the wild beasts. But no helpmate suitable for man was found for him. So the Lord God made the man fall into a deep sleep. And while he slept, he took one of his ribs and enclosed it in flesh. The Lord God built the rib he had taken from the man into a woman, and brought her to the man. The man exclaimed: This at last is bone from my bones, and flesh from my flesh! This is to be called woman, for this was taken from man. This is why a man leaves his father and mother and joins himself to his wife, and they become one body. This is the word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: May the Lord bless us all the days of our life.

Second Reading: Hebrews 2:9-11

We see in Jesus one who was for a short while made lower than the angels and is now crowned with glory and splendour because he submitted to death; by God's grace he had to experience death for all mankind. As it was his purpose to bring a great many of his sons into glory, it was appropriate that God, for whom everything exists and through whom everything exists, should make perfect, through suffering, the leader who would take them to their salvation. For the one who sanctifies, and the ones who are sanctified, are of the same stock; that is why he openly calls them brothers. This is the word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Alleluia, alleluia! Your word is truth, O Lord, consecrate us in the truth. Alleluia!

GOSPEL READING: Mark 10:13-16

People were bringing little children to him, for him to touch them. The disciples turned them away, but when Jesus saw this he was indignant and said to them, 'Let the little children come to me; do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs. I tell you solemnly, anyone who does not welcome the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it.' Then he put his arms round them, laid his hands on them and gave them his blessing.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.
