FR. GERRY ON SABBATICAL

Bishop Malcolm has given me permission to have a sabbatical this year for 3 months, from September to December. I've been accepted for a Renewal in Ministry Course at Sangre de Christo Centre in New Mexico, USA. Fr. Ka Fai Lee, the parish priest of St. Hughs' Borrowash, has agreed to lead the weekend masses here in my absence. I spoke last weekend of how we can keep the Saturday evening mass at 6.30pm but unfortunately need to change both the Sunday mass times because they clash with those at Borrowash. I was suggesting that 10.00am mass becomes 11.00am mass and 5.30pm mass becomes 5.00pm mass, for 3 months from September to December 12th. Please feel free to let me know your reactions or problems.

BAPTISM PREPARATION GROUP

For older children will take place at 10am mass today with Clare Beech

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTERS

Thank you all for your continuing service to the parishioners of St. Albans' at mass, in peoples' homes and in hospital. Thank you for renewing your commitment last weekend. My apologies to the 6.30pm congregation ~ I forgot but we shall renew the promises this Saturday evening.

SPIRITUALITY GROUP : Thursday 24 June – 7.30 Weekday Chapel

Exploring Ignatian Spirituality – Lead by guest speaker Ken Buggy, demonstrating what has been called the most entertaining form of Christian meditation. Everyone is welcome

COLLECTIONS: Last week £723.90; plus ~ £168 standing orders.

The second collection for the Papal Visit in September totalled £529.70 plus £40 approx from Gift Aid. Thank you all.

COUNTERS NEXT WEEK ~ Carl Mendoca & Dawn Kiddie

WELCOMERS NEXT WEEK 6:30pm Ellen Taylor & Alice White
10:00am Cecilia Lewis & Angela Fairbrother

READERS NEXT WEEK OAKWOOD ~ Dawn & Allan

First Reading: 2 Samuel 12:7-10.13

Nathan said to David, The Lord the God of Israel says this, I anointed you king over Israel; I delivered you from the hands of Saul; I gave your masters house to you, his wives into your arms; I gave you the House of Israel and of Judah; and if this were not enough, I would add as much again for you. Why have you shown contempt for the Lord, doing what displeases him? You have struck down Uriah the Hittite with the sword, taken his wife for your own, and killed him with the sword of the Ammonites. So now the sword will never be far from your House, since you have shown contempt for me and taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be your wife. David said to Nathan, I have sinned against the Lord. Then Nathan said to David, The Lord, for his part, forgives your sin; you are not to die.

This is the word of the Lord.

Response to Psalm: Forgive, Lord, the guilt of my sin.

Second Reading: Galatians 2:16.19-21

We acknowledge that what makes a man righteous is not obedience to the Law, but faith in Jesus Christ. We had to become believers in Christ Jesus no less than you had, and now we hold that faith in Christ rather than fidelity to the Law is what justifies us, and that no one can be justified by keeping the Law. In other words, through the Law I am dead to the Law, so that now I can live for God. I have been crucified with Christ, and I live now not with my own life but with the life of Christ who lives in me. The life I now live in this body I live in faith: faith in the Son of God who loved me and who sacrificed himself for my sake. I cannot bring myself to give up God's gift; if the Law can justify us, there is no point in the death of Christ.

This is the word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, Alleluia! I am the Way, the Truth and the Life, says the Lord; no one can come to the Father except through me. Alleluia!

Gospel Reading: Luke 7:36 - 8:3

One of the Pharisees invited Jesus to a meal. When he arrived at the Pharisee's house and took his place at table, a woman came in, who had a bad name in the town. She had heard he was dining with the Pharisee and had brought with her an alabaster jar of ointment. She waited behind him at his feet, weeping, and her tears fell on his feet, and she wiped them away with her hair; then she covered his feet with kisses and anointed them with the ointment. When the Pharisee who had invited him saw this, he said to himself, 'If this man were a prophet, he would know who this woman is that is touching him and what a bad name she has.' Then Jesus took him up and said, 'Simon, I have something to say to you.' 'Speak, Master,' was the reply. 'There was once a creditor who had two men in his debt; one owed him five hundred denarii, the other fifty. They were unable to pay, so he pardoned them both. Which of them will love him more?' 'The one who was pardoned more, I suppose,' answered Simon. Jesus said, 'You are right.' Then he turned to the woman. 'Simon,' he said, 'you see this woman? I came into your house, and you poured no water over my feet, but she has poured out her tears over my feet and wiped them away with her hair. You gave me no kiss, but she has been covering my feet with kisses ever since I came in. You did not anoint my head with oil, but she has anointed my feet with ointment. For this reason I tell you that her sins, her many sins, must have been forgiven her, or she would not have shown such great love. It is the man who is forgiven little who shows little love.' Then he said to her, 'Your sins are forgiven.' Those who were with him at table began to say to themselves, 'Who is this man, that he even forgives sins?' But he said to the woman, 'Your faith has saved you; go in peace.' Now after this he made his way through towns and villages, preaching, and proclaiming the Good News of the kingdom of God. With him went the Twelve, as well as certain women who had been cured of evil spirits and ailments: Mary surnamed the Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out, Joanna the wife of Herod's steward Chuza, Susanna, and several others who provided for them out of their own resources.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.
