ARCHBISHOP VINCENT NICHOLS WRITES

As you know the Bishops' Conferences of Scotland and England and Wales are working together on the planning of the forthcoming Visit of the Holy Father to the UK from 16-19th September 2010. The Visit has both State and pastoral aspects. The Holy Father is coming at the invitation of Her Majesty the Queen and the Prime Minister, and the Visit will include a number of state engagements. There will also be a number of pastoral events, culminating with the beatification of Cardinal Newman at a major open air Mass at Coventry Airport on Sunday 19th September. We would ask you first of all to pray for the Holy Father and to pray for the Visit itself. Prayer cards for your parishioners are included with the material you are being sent with this letter. Please encourage your people to remember the Visit in their prayers. Liturgical resources for this Mass will be available on the Papal Visit website www.thepapalvisit.org You will appreciate also that the costs of the Visit are significant. The State elements are properly the responsibility of the government to meet, but quite rightly the Church will need to meet the costs of the pastoral aspects of the Visit. We are working on plans for these events which will leave a lasting legacy for the Church in England, Scotland and Wales. To help meet these costs (of around £7m in total) we have asked for a special collection to be held in all parishes in Scotland, England and Wales on Sunday, 6th June 2010. Please encourage your people to be as generous as they possibly can. Thank you for all you do, and for your help and support.

CHILDREN OF FIJI CHARITY

"Do you have any unwanted books? If so, Children Of Fiji Charity is asking us to donate them to schools and colleges in Fiji, where educational resources are limited. Allen Embley, The Church on Oakwood's URC representative, will be coordinating the collection. Allen will be collecting children's, general reading and technical/education books etc during the first two weeks of June at The Church on Oakwood on Saturday Morning, 12th and 19th June or, if more convenient to you, Allen will collect books from you if you telephone or e-mail him between those dates on 01332 664080 or e-mail:

e.embley@btinternet.com This is a very worthwhile charity, whose aim is to advance education, health and welfare, and to relieve poverty of all children in Fiji. For more information please see their website

Monies and cheques beforehand please.

FR. GERRY ON SABBATICAL

Bishop Malcolm has given me permission to have a sabbatical this year for 3 months, from September to December. I've been accepted for a Renewal in Ministry Course at Sangre de Christo Centre in New Mexico, USA. Fr. Ka Fai Lee, the parish priest of St. Hughs' Borrowwash, has agreed to lead the weekend masses here in my absence. I spoke last weekend of how we can keep the Saturday evening mass at 6.30pm but unfortunately need to change both the Sunday mass times because they clash with those at Borrowwash. I was suggesting that 10.00am mass becomes 11.00am mass and 5.30pm mass becomes 5.00pm mass, for 3 months from September to December 12th. Please feel free to let me know your reactions or problems.

PARISH COUNCIL

Will meet this Thursday, June 10th at 7.30pm in the Parish Centre for a training night with Paula Bailey, the Diocesan Adult Education Adviser.

COLLECTIONS: Last week £1023.25; plus ~ £168 standing orders. Thank you all.

READERS NEXT WEEK OAKWOOD ~ Catherine & Martin

First Reading: Genesis 14:18-20

Melchizedek king of Salem brought bread and wine; he was a priest of God Most High. He pronounced this blessing:
Blessed be Abraham by God Most High, creator of heaven and earth, and blessed be God Most High for handing over your enemies to you.
And Abraham gave him a tithe of everything.

This is the word of the Lord.

Response to Psalm: You are a priest for ever, a priest like Melchizedek of old.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 11:23-26

This is what I received from the Lord, and in turn passed on to you: that on the same night that he was betrayed, the Lord Jesus took some bread, and thanked God for it and broke it, and he said, 'This is my body, which is for you; do this as a memorial of me.' In the same way he took the cup after supper, and said, 'This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Whenever you drink it, do this as a memorial of me.' Until the Lord comes, therefore, every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are proclaiming his death.

This is the word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! I am the living bread which has come down from heaven, says the Lord. Anyone who eats this bread will live forever. Alleluia!

Gospel Reading: Luke 9:11-17

Jesus made the crowds welcome and talked to them about the kingdom of God; and he cured those who were in need of healing.
It was late afternoon when the Twelve came to him and said, 'Send the people away, and they can go to the villages and farms round about to find lodging and food; for we are in a lonely place here.' He replied, 'Give them something to eat yourselves.' But they said, 'We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we are to go ourselves and buy food for all these people.' For there were about five thousand men. But he said to his disciples, 'Get them to sit down in parties of about fifty.' They did so and made them all sit down. Then he took the five loaves and the two fish, raised his eyes to heaven, and said the blessing over them; then he broke them and handed them to his disciples to distribute among the crowd. They all ate as much as they wanted, and when the scraps remaining were collected they filled twelve baskets.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.
