Harvest @ Oakwood

Many thanks to all those who brought harvest gifts of groceries and toiletries for the Padley centre. These will be collected on Tuesday by members of the group and are much appreciated. Thanks also to everyone who came to the Harvest Supper and especially to Mike and Fran who joined in the concert party and entertained us all! We raised £262 for the Disasters Emergency Committee, so thanks again.

Cafod Fast Day Collection thanks to everyone who contributed in any way to our efforts on behalf of the Cafod Fast Day appeal last weekend. Whether you supplied goods for the Harvest display, bought produce or goods from the table top sale or gave to the collection your contribution will help to make a better life for people like Jeanne in Rwanda and others who are suffering from the effects of warfare, natural disasters and poverty. Later in the year we will hear more of their stories through the Connect 2 project. Thanks to you our parish raised £841:06 which included £76.37 from the sale of produce

Altar Server Training for altar servers will take place on the next three Saturdays, 16th, 23rd and 30th October. We will start here at Church at 9.30am and continue until 11.00am on each morning. If you haven't let Simon or Cheryl know yet, don't worry just turn up. Simon tel. 678837, Cheryl tel. 679642.

St Alban's Primary School are collecting Morrisons 'Let's Grow' vouchers. If you have any to donate please pass them to any member of the school or leave in the basket in the Church Porch. Thank you.

The First Reading: Habakkuk 1:2-3; 2:2-4

How long, Lord, am I to cry for help while you will not listen; to cry Oppression! In your ear and you will not save? Why do you set injustice before me, why do you look on where there is tyranny? Outrage and violence, this is all I see, all is contention, and discord flourishes. Then the Lord answered and said, Write the vision down, inscribe it on tablets to be easily read, since this vision is for its own time only: eager for its own fulfilment, it does not deceive; if it comes slowly, wait, for come it will, without fail. See how he flags, he whose soul is not at rights, but the upright man will live by his faithfulness.

This is the word of the Lord.

Response to Psalm: O that today you would listen to his voice! Harden not your hearts.

Second Reading: 2 Timothy 1:6-8.13-14

I am reminding you to fan into a flame the gift that God gave you when I laid my hands on you. God's gift was not a spirit of timidity, but the Spirit of power, and love, and self-control. So you are never to be ashamed of witnessing to the Lord, or ashamed of me for being his prisoner; but with me, bear the hardships for the sake of the Good News, relying on the power of God. Keep as your pattern the sound teaching you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. You have been trusted to look after something precious; guard it with the help of the Holy Spirit who lives in us.

This is the word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Speak, Lord, your servant is listening: you have the message of eternal life. Alleluia!

Gospel Reading: Luke 17:5-10

The apostles said to the Lord, 'Increase our faith.' The Lord replied, 'Were your faith the size of a mustard seed you could say to this mulberry tree, "Be uprooted and planted in the sea", and it would obey you.

'Which of you, with a servant ploughing or minding sheep, would say to him when he returned from the fields, "Come and have your meal immediately"? Would he not be more likely to say, "Get my supper laid; make yourself tidy and wait on me while I eat and drink. You can eat and drink yourself afterwards"? Must he be grateful to the servant for doing what he was told? So with you: when you have done all you have been told to do, say, "We are merely servants: we have done no more than our duty." '

This is the Gospel of the Lord.
