

First Reading

Wisdom 9:13-18

What man can know the intentions of God? Who can divine the will of the Lord? The reasonings of mortals are unsure and our intentions unstable; for a perishable body presses down the soul, and this tent of clay weighs down the teeming mind. It is hard enough for us to work out what is on earth, laborious to know what lies within our reach; who, then, can discover what is in the heavens?

As for your intention, who could have learnt it, had you not granted Wisdom and sent your holy spirit from above? Thus have the paths of those on earth been straightened and men been taught what pleases you, and saved, by Wisdom.

This is the word of the Lord.

Response to the Psalm:

' O Lord you have been our refuge from one generation to the next'

Second Reading

Philemon 9-10.12-17

Gospel Acclamation: *Alleluia, alleluia! I call you friends says the Lord, because I have made known to you everything
I have learnt from my Father. Alleluia!*

Gospel Reading

Luke 14:25-33

Great crowds accompanied Jesus on his way and he turned and spoke to them. 'If any man comes to me without hating his father, mother, wife, children, brothers, sisters, yes and his own life too, he cannot be my disciple. Anyone who does not carry his cross and come after me cannot be my disciple.

'And indeed, which of you here, intending to build a tower, would not first sit down and work out the cost to see if he had enough to complete it? Otherwise, if he laid the foundation and then found himself unable to finish the work, the onlookers would all start making fun of him and saying, "Here is a man who started to build and was unable to finish." Or again, what king marching to war against another king would not first sit down and consider whether with ten thousand men he could stand up to the other who advanced against him with twenty thousand? If not, then while the other king was still a long way off, he would send envoys to sue for peace. So in the same way, none of you can be my disciple unless he gives up all his possessions.'

PAPAL VISIT 16 – 19 SEPTEMBER

‘Magnificat’. A book of liturgies and prayers, for the visit by Pope Benedict XVI to the U.K, is now available in the Church Porch. The booklet contains the texts of the public prayer in which Pope Benedict will take part; a series of articles giving background to the events; liturgies for the days immediately before and after the visit. There are enough copies for at least one per family and they would be most useful for those attending any of the events.

Altar Servers We will be carrying out training soon for any of our young or older people who would like to become an Altar Server. Most of our current servers began serving shortly after their first communion. If you are a parent and have young people who would like to serve please encourage them and let us know. If you are an adult please also let us know – don’t be shy. All are welcome. Contact: Cheryl Shanks, 679642 or Simon Baldwin , 678837. As we only have one meeting each year, it is an opportunity to meet together , share experiences and ideas and give thanks for the regular commitment of members to this important ministry. Anyone interested in being part of the Welcome group at either church , please come along, or contact Pat Orrell 01332 664152.
