*“I felt overwhelmed last weekend by the warmth and sincerity of your goodbyes. Anne Kearney spoke at the end of Saturday evening mass, Maria Neades and Clare Cox at 10 a.m. and Sandra Endsor and David Wright on Sunday evening at the Church on Oakwood. Thank you for taking the time to say goodbye and thank you for all your gratitude, good wishes and prayers, as I go to Bulwell. I will take you all with me!
I received many cards and presents and I especially want to thank the Children’s Liturgy Group and the Youth Group. I will keep your pictures, messages and prayers and use them to encourage myself on the journey. I also want to thank Mark Booton and the children, parents, staff and governors of St Alban’s school. I was really touched by the Liturgy we shared together and by my last governors’ meeting last week.*

Thank you all.”

Please pray for Sally Gunston whose funeral takes place here on Wednesday and Thursday. Sally lived on Halifax Close in Breadsall and moved to Duffield 20 years ago.

First Reading Isaiah 58:7-10

Thus says the Lord: Share your bread with the hungry, and shelter the homeless poor, clothe the man you see to be naked and turn not from your own kin. Then will your light shine like the dawn and your wound be quickly healed over. Your integrity will go before you and the glory of the Lord behind you. Cry, and the Lord will answer; call and he will say, I am here. If you do away with the yoke, the clenched fist, the wicked word, if you give your bread to the hungry, and relief to the oppressed, your light will rise in the darkness, and your shadows become like noon.

This is the word of the Lord.

Response to the Psalm:

The good man is a light in the darkness for the upright.

Sung response: The Lord is my light, my light and salvation:
in Him I trust, in Him I trust

Second Reading 1 Corinthians 2:1-5

When I came to you, brothers, it was not with any show of oratory or philosophy, but simply to tell you what God had guaranteed. During my stay with you, the only knowledge I claimed to have was about Jesus, and only about him as the crucified Christ. Far from relying on any power of my own, I came among you in great 'fear and trembling' and in my speeches and the sermons that I gave, there were none of the arguments that belong to philosophy; only a demonstration of the power of the Spirit. And I did this so that your faith should not depend on human philosophy but on the power of God.

This is the word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! I am the light of the world, says the Lord. Anyone who follows me will have the light of life. Alleluia!

Gospel Reading Matthew 5:13-16

Jesus said to his disciples: 'You are the salt of the earth. But if salt becomes tasteless, what can make it salty again? It is good for nothing, and can only be thrown out to be trampled underfoot by men.

'You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill-top cannot be hidden. No one lights a lamp to put it under a tub; they put it on the lamp-stand where it shines for everyone in the house. In the same way your light must shine in the sight of men, so that, seeing your good works, they may give the praise to your Father in heaven.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord.
