Gift Aid forms are available from church or from the Parish Office.

Update on Finances:

There will be an update on parish finances at all Masses this weekend. We are so grateful for your continued support and help, making sure the church properties can be maintained and looked after. We are, as you know, completely self-funding. We manage and run the church expenses through what we receive from the standing orders, collections, fund raising and other income (such as hall and parish Centre bookings). Occasionally we receive legacies through the generosity of peoples' wills. Please consider, when updating your will, the possibility of leaving something to the parish you are attending. Thank you.
